Superintendent's Comments

Monroe High School students, Selena Melendez and Charlotte Bert, shared their ukulele playing talent with the audience. Selena and Charlotte taught themselves how to play the ukulele by watching YouTube videos.

This year's winner of Sodexo's Future Chef Contest was Custer student Cooper Gregurich. The theme for this year was Asian Fusion, and Cooper's winning dish was a strawberry crème wonton, which he shared with Board members.

On April 20, Monroe High School's Student Leadership group organized and led a very special event to commemorate the anniversary of Columbine. Through The Together Movement, the Student Leadership group wanted to implement a message of compassion and kindness.

Sixth grade students in Mrs. Lynch's class at Raisinville School participated in a community service project to raise money for Project Second Chance Monroe, which is a nonprofit that pairs troubled youth with abandoned dogs. The Dog Walk and Carnival took place on Saturday, April 21, and the students raised $3,340, which was matched by an anonymous donor.

Kudos to the Athletic Department for their efforts in rescheduling the rescheduled games due to the weather! Decision Day at MHS is coming up on May 1, and Prom is this Saturday at the Rooster Tail.

We had approximately 40 people attend our Community Coffee Hour today at Monroe Middle School. There were community officials, parents, as well as prospective parents in attendance.

Monroe High School's choirs brought home awards from the State Solo and Ensemble Festival this past weekend. Monroe Encore and The Treblemakers earned a rating of 1, which is the highest rating possible.

A group of Monroe High School string players, led by Anne Felder, played before and during the Hofu delegation celebration last evening. Mrs. Everly commented what a wonderful representation they were of Monroe Public Schools. Hofu representatives were delighted to receive a varsity letter from Monroe High School!
